Reverend Charles and Reverend Cheryl Cavalconte at OceanCliff

as a counselor.

Cheryl has her Masters of Theology and was ordained a priest in 1997. She served over eighteen years in many different pastoral capacities. Presently, she teaches college English and Communication.

Cheryl and Charles are certified both by ordination and by most states to perform wedding ceremonies. Collectively, they have extensive experience in all aspects of marriage preparation, counseling, and ministrations. They have a broad repertoire of rites and rituals using creative and innovative options. As a married couple, they are committed to minister to those seeking to marry, to renew wedding vows, and or to solemnize their commitments.

Simply, they love working with lovers.
