

Clergy with Substantiated Allegations of Sexual Misconduct with Minors.

Updated 11/28/2018

The following clergy are no longer in public ministry because an allegation of sexual misconduct with a minor has been substantiated.

The list includes all priests and deacons of the Archdiocese of Chicago and all extern and religious order priests serving in the Archdiocese against whom there have been an allegation which was substantiated by the Archdiocese's Review Process for Continuation of Ministry administered by the Independent Review Board. Prior to the creation of the Review Board in 1992, allegations were substantiated by administrative review.

An allegation is deemed to be substantiated if there is reasonable cause to believe that abuse occurred. This determination follows a process of consultation and is not a legal judgment.

Every effort has been made to make sure that the list is accurate. Questions about the list should be in writing and directed to the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth, Archdiocese of Chicago, P.O. Box 1979, Chicago, IL 60690.

Archdiocesan Priests with Allegations of Sexual Misconduct with Minors that were not Sustained after Canonical Trial

When the Independent Review Board finds that there is “reasonable cause” to suspect that a cleric has sexually abused a minor, the allegation is forwarded to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith (CDF). Transmittal of the allegation to the CDF is required in order to remove a priest permanently from ministry. The CDF either gives permission to remove a priest permanently from priestly ministry through an administrative process, or the CDF directs that the case be heard in a canonical court. After all the appeals have been exhausted, the court's judgment is final.

If the trial judges cannot achieve the required moral certitude that the alleged abuse has occurred, then the cleric remains in good standing. However, if in the course of the process, information surfaces that there may have been other inappropriate behavior, the ministry of the priest may be limited.
