

740. Becker, Franklyn

① ✓ Father Carl Last called to say that [REDACTED] who live in St. John's Parish are worried about the relationship that exists between Becker and their teenage son. Becker is lavishing gifts and attention on the boy and the two are spending a lot of time together. I told Last it would be helpful if the parents of the boy went directly to Becker and informed him they wanted this to stop.

Father Heffron came to see me today to say that Father Becker could no longer be the associate pastor there. He said the alternative would be that he himself would resign as pastor. I told him that was not acceptable because it would not be good for the parish. He claims Becker is lazy, causes trouble, and lacks common sense. It grates at Heffron to see someone receive a salary for doing nothing. The parish secretary and others in the parish are complaining about Becker. People are asking Heffron to have their weddings and funerals to avoid Becker. Heffron recalls that when Becker was sent there it was with the understanding that if things did not work out, Becker would go. It was his last chance. Heffron feels as though he has bent over backwards to help Becker but it is beginning to take a toll on him. Now he will confront Becker with this and tell him that he has seen me. Then he will write a letter to me about this and I will discuss the matter with the Personnel Board next week for a recommendation.

I spoke to Dale Olen about the possibility of his being a part of the confrontation of Becker by me and Hornacek and Heffron. Olen feels it would be better for us to do the confrontation and then suggests that he follow up with Becker as his therapist.
