RE: Fr. John Charles Keith.....#1602

Effective January 1, 2002, your monthly residential room and board rate will be $1,350.00.

No doubt you are aware of the soaring utility costs, employee wage and benefit increases, cost of living changes and overall maintenance increases, etc. You probably know our prices are still much lower than others in the health care field.

Please acknowledge your acceptance of the above change by signing this notification and returning it to the Administration Office, in the enclosed envelope, no later than December 15, 2001.

Thank you for your cooperation and the privilege of serving you here at Nazareth House.

Let's go ahead with the plan to have Fr. Keith move to Nazareth House. We'll supplement whatever he cannot afford to pay for living at Nazareth.

>>> Connie Smith 03/01 2:09 PM >>>

Msgr., Father Keith has an opportunity to move into the Nazareth House in the next three weeks.

The rent at NH is $1250 per month. His retirement is $1400 per mo. As you can see there is a problem. I talked to Robert Schulltie, Father John's nephew about the rent problem. If he can be placed at NH he won't have rent, utilities, and food to pay for, that is included. Robert indicated that Father could probably pay 1/2 of the rent now and as he pays off other bills should be able to pay about 2/3's of the rent. He has a car that he can't drive and will be selling it. So there is more income that he can apply to the NH for his care and bill. It would take a few months to get every thing in line to know exactly how much assistance he would need every month.

I don't know what can be done to help Father John get into NH, but it would be better for him. He will be able to get proper care for his diabetes problem. Due to his eye sight (he is legally blind) he can't take his blood tests, for example. At NH the medical assistance would be there for him to have a better quality of life.

Also, he could be transferred into the infirmary, etc., in case of any complications he may have. Which would save the Diocese from placing him in assisted care (for example).

His Nephew's phone number is _____ Robert has been helping Father John with his bills and managing other things. Father's phone number is 619-232-3206.

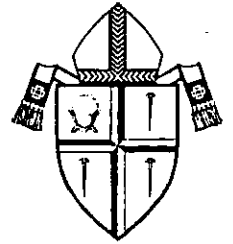

I wanted to give you as much detail as possible to help you make a decision. If you need more information please let me know. I know decisions can't be made in a minute.

I have told Father John that I would send you a letter with as much detail as I could.

Unfortunately, I will be on vacation next week but would be happy to help in any way I can.

Sincerely,
Connie Smith

Dear Father Keith:

We have been informed that you have an outstanding bill at Pharmerica Pharmacy. We would be glad to assist you with your pharmacy co-payments or with this particular bill.

The diocese has resources for the pastoral care of priests which can assist a priest who has medical bills beyond what is covered by his insurance and which he cannot pay from his own resources. Please contact my office at (858) 490-8310 if you would like to make arrangements for assistance with your medical bills.

DATE: February 7, 1990
RE: Clergy Personnel Assignments

The Diocesan Clergy Personnel Board met with Bishop Maher, Bishop Brom and Bishop Chavez on Tuesday, February 6, 1990.

The following assignments were agreed upon by the Personnel Board:

1. Monsignor Lawrence M. Purcell will become Pastor of St. James Parish and St. Leo Mission, Solana Beach, effective March 1, 1990.
2. Monsignor Jeremiah O'Sullivan will begin a sabbatical leave, effective March 1, 1990 and ending July 1, 1990. Monsignor O'Sullivan plans to do a thirty-day retreat and participate in some renewal programs. He will be available for a new assignment within the Diocese on July 1, 1990.
3. Father Jack Keith has retired (for health reasons) as Chaplain of Grossmont, Alvarado and Kaiser Hospitals, effective January 1, 1990. At the present time, we are seeking the services of a priest who will undertake the Chaplaincy of the above-listed hospitals, either on a part-time or full-time basis.

Father Keith's ministry in our diocese throughout his many years of dedicated service is deeply appreciated. We wish him ad multos annos in leisurely retirement.

4. Father Kenneth Del Priore has been granted permission by Bishop Maher to terminate his assignment at Marian Catholic High School. During the coming weeks, Father Ken will continue to conduct workshops related to Liturgical Ministries scheduled by him through the Office of Liturgy and Prayer. He will then begin a mini-sabbatical. Upon completion of his sabbatical, he will be offered a new assignment.

I would like to file a formal complaint against one of your employees.

I happened upon a scene in a local bank yesterday that has me seriously doubting the Christianity of the people leading our Church.

I am referring to John Keith, who claims to be a Roman Catholic priest. He was sitting at a desk at my bank shouting and demanding to speak to the manager. He then shouted and belittled both the manager and the employees who were trying desperately to calm him. He threatened to have an employee fired for not doing a transaction for him. I asked the employee who was helping me to find out who the customer was, and when I learned he was a priest, I was shocked! and embarrassed to admit that I am a Roman Catholic!

I have never received anything but courteous and efficient service from every employee in that bank, and I am sure that this person was being completely unreasonable for the bank officials to not want to go against their policies for him.

I only hope I am wrong, and this man is not a priest in our Diocese.

Written on behalf of the poor employees who had to be civil to and let this horrible person curse and berate them.

Dear Msgr. Eagen:

Please excuse the delay in replying to your letter of Nov. 7th, but until a few days ago my eyes were not up to such close work as typing. In the last few days however there has been a marvelous improvement.

Concerning the letter of Mr. Jose Pumar, postmarked Nov. 4, 1986, may I make the following comments:

Mr. Pumar was admitted to Kaiser Hospital at 8:00 A.M., Monday, Oct. 27th, and had surgery the same day. Although I was there that day his admission had not yet been recorded on the hospital print out, therefore I did not see him on Monday.

Tuesday, the 28th, was one of my regular days off, but that evening around 8pm I went to Kaiser to meet Rev. Warren Williams - the Presbyterian chaplain - who was going with another priest and me to hear Cardinal Bernardin speak at UCSD. At that time I checked my box to see whether there was anything needing my immediate attention, and I found a note that Mr. Pumar in 5310H wished to see me, so before I left I went to his room accompanied by Rev. Williams. Rather than being "reluctant" I went out of my way to see him.

Mr. Pumar asked me if he could receive Communion, but I explained that as I was not on duty I had no Hosts, but would bring him Communion on Thursday. I went on to explain that since I was alone I tried to split my days off, but that week it was impossible since I had 2 funerals the following day (Wed.). Rev. Williams also assured him that I tried to see all Catholic patients every day that I was at the hospital. Mr. Pumar's assertion that I told him I would be too busy to return is simply untrue, a fact which Rev. Williams can also corroborate.

Thursday I made three attempts to see Mr. Pumar but in each case a nurse was with him.

Friday the sisters have Benediction at 11:00 A.M. so I usually arrive at Kaiser in the afternoon. Mr. Pumar's room was the first I visited, but he had checked out.

I hope these facts clarify the situation.

Sincerely in Christ,

John C. Keith

Dear Meg Eagan,

Recently I was hospitalized at Kaiser for removal of a thyroid tumor. On the day following surgery my wife tried in vain to contact a priest at the hospital. She eventually contacted a Protestant minister who brought a reluctant Fr. John Keith to my room. He claimed he had no hosts with him and was therefore unable to administer the sacrament to me. When I requested he return sometime during the week to administer Communion, he pleaded that would be too busy. He eventually made a vague promise to return on Thursday or Friday, however, & never did return.

I have been a practicing Catholic all of my life and am a member of the Knights of Columbus. Although when my wife contacted our parish, Blessed Sacrament, they also sent no one. Eventually she contacted Extraordinary Minister, Barbara Sullivan, who came with the sacrament. If not for her I would have felt totally abandoned and rejected by my church.

My faith was sadly disappointing to me at a stressful time, and I would appreciate a letter or phone call from you explaining exactly why this happened.

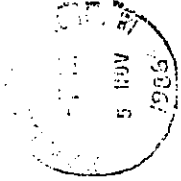

Sincerely,

Dear Father Keith:

I have arranged with Rev. Patrick J. Grace to relieve you for two days each week on your days off. These days will be Tuesday and Wednesday. Father Grace will be available for duty from Monday at 12 midnight until Wednesday at 12 midnight.

This will facilitate the pastoral care of the Catholic patients at Alvarado, Grossmont, and Kaiser hospitals.

Bishop Maher has approved this arrangement.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Rev. Mark A. Campbell
FROM: Most Rev. Leo T. Maher
RE: Rev. John C. Keith

While it seems a simple matter of covering Grossmont Hospital for Father Keith's day off, the pastors will make this a major problem since the Hospital is so vast and the demands are so many. Most of them feel overworked already.

It would seem if you had the cooperation of everyone involved it could be handled, especially if Father Dennis Barry would become active.

There is also a suggestion that maybe Father Salca could be responsible. That is a possibility, if his health permits.

In the long run, I believe they would be willing to put up another salary for a second priest. This could also be a possibility.

Dear Father Campbell:

We have a serious concern regarding Catholic Chaplaincy services at Grossmont District Hospital which we need to bring to your attention for timely resolution.

The problem has been evident for a long time, but appears to be worsening and was made visible in a most dramatic fashion early in the morning on February 22. A night nursing supervisor tried in vain for over two hours while making twelve phone calls to contact a parish priest to minister to the spiritual needs of a young couple who had experienced a still birth. Fr. Keith was eventually contacted to baptize the baby, even though it was his day off. Other examples of emergency situations when a priest could not be reached are attached to this letter.

Grossmont District Hospital is the third largest acute medical facility in San Diego County with 400 beds and generally has a very high patient census. On an average day, fifty Catholic patients are hospitalized here, many of whom are not affiliated with a local parish. Spiritual care programs are highly valued and heavily utilized as a result of a very active volunteer chaplain's program which is supervised by the Religious Advisory Committee. One of the major specializations within the chaplain's program is the Emergency Care Chaplains service. Emergency Care Chaplains have special training and respond to code and trauma situations in the Emergency Room, critical care units and Post-Partum on an "around-the-clock" basis.

We recognize that Fr. Keith is the Catholic chaplain for three area hospitals; therefore, it seems necessary that at times he receive assistance from parish priests in the East County area.

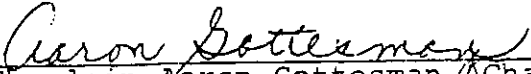

Keith-SLLBV 0026

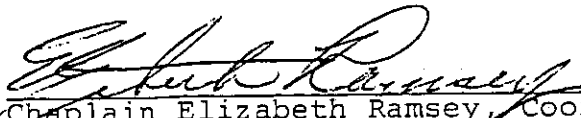

Emergency requests for a Catholic chaplain are not adequately being met during Father Keith's days off. Perhaps an "on-call" schedule could be developed with individual priests agreeing to be available for emergency calls on a regularly-scheduled basis. A priest would also be needed as a back-up to Fr. Keith during the other days of the week to be available to respond in the event he is already involved in a crisis situation.

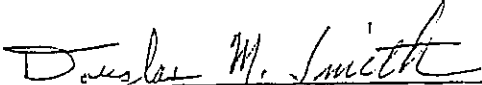

The present situation cannot be tolerated much longer. We do not want our Catholic patients and their family members to be without the assistance and spiritual comfort that only the presence of a Catholic priest can bring. Nor do we want adverse publicity to be directed toward the Catholic Church and its clergy. We are prepared to explore this problem and to formulate a plan which will be mutually beneficial.

We look forward to hearing from you regarding this problem. Any response can be directed to Mr. Douglas Smith, Director of Social Services. He can be reached Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at 465-0711, Ext. 644.

Example 2 - The standard answer from parish secretaries, rectory housekeepers, and priests is -- call the assigned priest. Who is the assigned priest when Father Keith is not available and/or is taking his regular days off each week?

Example 3 - 8 p.m. - An elderly man in the Medical Intensive Care Unit died. His wife requested a priest. The nurse called PABX; PABX called me (chaplain on call) to see if I could get a priest.

I talked with the MICU nurse. She said she hated to keep questioning the grieving woman as to parish home, etc. I said call Father Keith. They said they already had and he said to call the parish priest as it was his day off and he couldn't come in because of another commitment.

I talked to PABX and asked them to start down the list of churches and call for a priest. They made several calls with no positive results. They called me back on the pager. I then called MICU. The nurse said the crying woman couldn't take all the confusion and said "forget it" and went home. I checked the next day. They were visiting from San Bernardino.

Example 4 - 10 p.m. - rainy night. Two 14-year-old girls, under the influence of alcohol, took without permission a family car, crashed and were brought to Grossmont. By 11 p.m. one girl had been released with only minor injuries but the other girl was in SICU, unconscious. Several doctors talked with the parents and told them their daughter could not live. The parents went into the Meditation Room to pray. When they came out, the father was screaming, "get a priest, get a priest." I asked what parish they were from. The man said "D--- you, woman, don't ask questions, get a priest, any priest." (I knew that Father Keith was on his day off.)

I called two churches and got no reply. I then called the third church. Father ----- talked with me. I requested a priest for the anointing of a dying teenager. He told me to call the priest assigned by the Diocese for hospital work. I told him it was that priest's day off. He asked the patient's name, I told him and he said he didn't know her. Then he said he was "all the way in El Cajon and it was raining and could I try to get someone else." I told him his was the third church contacted. He said he couldn't come but he would try to send someone. I stressed the urgency of the request.

I returned to the girl's father who asked me again if the priest was coming. I explained that I had called but was not certain anyone would come. He then said call Father ----- . "He is our priest, he will come." I told him that's who I talked to and that he wasn't coming but would try to send another priest. Shortly after midnight an elderly priest, whom I had never seen before, arrived. He said he was from St. Therese in San Diego. I asked who called him. He said ----- called another parish and then called me. He was very kind and went to the girl and anointed her. He then told the parents he would notify Father ----- in the morning and have prayers said for the girl. He then departed. Within a few minutes, the girl died.

Funeral services for this young woman were later conducted in the parish of Father -----.

CASE EXAMPLES

Example 1 - I was the Emergency Care Chaplain on duty. I was called at 5:10 a.m. by the nursing supervisor who stated to me that a priest was needed to baptize a stillborn and comfort the parents; and because of "past difficulties" in locating a priest, she thought it best to call me for assistance.

I told the supervisor to contact the parish priest of the family. I was told they did not have or know a priest by name. I then said to call any of the parish priests and ask one to come. If they could not get a priest, call Father Keith. (Father Keith has said that even on his day off, if he is home and it is an emergency, he would respond.)

At 7 a.m. I was paged again while driving on the freeway. Father Keith had been called but apparently was not informed that it was a serious emergency. He therefore suggested that St. Martin's be contacted. I stated that I would manage the now-stressful situation.

At 7:20 I was paged again. I said I was enroute to the hospital and would contact the nurse.

At 7:45 I phoned Father Keith. He said he had been called earlier and was unaware of the graveness of the situation. He said he had Mass at 8:30 but would come in immediately. He arrived at the hospital a few minutes later.

*NOTE: Memo received by director of social services regarding same incident referred to in Example 1:

"I am concerned about the lack of response on the part of a Catholic Priest when a patient whose baby had died requested one. When I arrived at 0700 today the night supervisor reported that he had been trying for over 2 hours, and made 12 phone calls in an attempt to get someone. I then placed a call to Elizabeth Ramsey, who was gracious as always, and she came in and called a priest who arrived, stayed 2½ minutes, looking at his watch constantly, and initially refused to baptize the baby as the nurse had already done so. This was upsetting to the family, so the priest did finally do something to please them. This episode made the hospital look bad, as the family "couldn't understand why the hospital couldn't call a priest for them". Let me add my appreciation to Chaplain Ramsey who helped out when I just didn't know where else to turn.

*Father Keith later explained that the above memo contained several inaccuracies. We were quite satisfied with the explanation.

My dear Bishop Maher:

There is a priest who has been on the front lines with us in defending the right to life of the unborn. He has been there everytime he was needed, even though he was given very short notice in most cases. Twice he has given up his days off to publically speak out against the disrespect for life and it's abuse. From Right to Life Sundays, picketing anti-life forces to speaking out against the proposed sex education teacher training program, he has been there in his clerical collar, giving us "moral" support.

Right to Life would like to take this time to commend his efforts and to share with you our heartfelt thanks for his superior commitment.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Monsignor Eagan:

I deeply regret I have to appeal to diocesan authority for this 10-month old bill, originally for $19.83, concerning which I wrote you on December 13 and you wrote Father Keith on December 23. ACTA Foundation (the distributor of my filmstrips) has still not heard anything from Father Keith. The overdue charges of $6.00 are minimal, in the hope that we eventually break even if and when this obligation is paid. The order came by long distance; the girl at ACTA rushed a UPS premium shipment in order to do what was asked. In these circumstances, it seems pure fraud that it is not paid. Please advise if I have justifiable recourse to appeal to the diocese, to a complaint board, or to St. Joseph Church in Barstow, since Father Keith evidently refuses to honor his word? Dear Monsignor Eagen:

I regret to be forced to bother you with a question of collecting on an extremely overdue debt, but ACTA Foundation (the distributor of my filmstrips and cassettes) has asked me for payment of its charges, plus the fact that I have already had to pay earlier charges of production. A reminder was sent to Father Keith on August 9; a final notice on November 20, with an indication that we would be forced to take the matter to diocesan authorities. Father Keith had phoned ACTA Foundation last April and asked for premium rush delivery on the filmstrip SHROUD OF TURIN. ACTA has not heard from him since.

In view of the recent letter of the Catholic bishops on the requirements of just obligations, might you request Father Keith to pay ACTA Foundation at once?

Thank you.

Dear Father Kirk:

After repeated attempts by letter and telephone to urge Father John Keith to take care of a long overdue debt to the Bank of America, we find it necessary to ask you to attach his salary in the amount of $50.00 monthly and send it to the Brush Collection Agency, 2230 Fifth, San Diego 92101.

This is an indebtedness incurred several years ago for which I extracted a promise from Father Keith to pay $50.00 a month. To date he has only made one payment late in April. Payments for May and June ($100.00) are to be deducted from his June salary by you and mailed direct to the Brush Collection Agency. This procedure is to be followed each month thereafter until the entire amount of indebtedness $820.26 is paid.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Rev. Msgr. I. Brent Eagen

It is not possible for us to remind you several times each month of these obligations. If the present payment and subsequent payments are not forthcoming, we will begin in June to attach your salary.

Please be assured of our prayerful good wishes.

Dear Monsignor:

Would you be so good as to forward these bills to Father John Keith, who was here for two months this summer? He said that he would send me his new address but I have not to date received it. I would not want any of the business places here to be hurt by his tardiness in paying bills. Perhaps you could gently remind him of the concern of these people. I am concerned too for not all of them are Catholics and it could hurt the credit rating of any of us priests.

Thank you very much, Monsignor.

The Reverend Joseph Leissler, Pastor
P.O. Box 5
Cathedral City, California 92234

Dear Father Leissler:

A Mrs. Petta, representing the law firm of O'Brian McCarthy, telephoned me long distance from Chicago this morning.

Mrs. Petta states that she has tried repeatedly to get Father Keith to discharge his obligation in justice to pay his bills for books. Because of the total lack of cooperation her company has reached the limit of tolerance and will be satisfied if Father Keith returns a 20 volume set of encyclopedias purchased in 1966. Other items were purchased but Mrs. Petta states that the company will be content if the encyclopedia is returned.

This is, of course, a deplorable thing and I very much resent the fact that Father Keith has such seemingly little concern for elementary matters of justice that it became necessary for Mrs. Petta to involve me. In any case, would you please be kind enough to see to it yourself that the encyclopedia is returned at once Mrs. Petta at 333 North Michigan Avenue, Suite 1025, Chicago, Illinois 60601. If you can determine the other items for which payment has not been made please return these also to Mrs. Petta.

With gratitude for your assistance, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

In Re: Bank Americard vs:
Rev. John C. Keith

Your Reverence:

The above named priest is indebted to Bank Americard for $641.10 through use of one of our credit Cards. He gave his employment as Priest at St. Louis church in Cathedral City. His application was dated 7-11-67.

We have sent him numerous notices, all of which he has chosen to ignore.

We do not like having to file suit against anyone let alone a member of the clergy and we are hoping that a word from you might be of some help in getting him to contact us and set up a re-payment program. We do not know whether he has a regular salary or not for he stated that his monthly income was 'varied.'

Will you be kind enough to advise us if he is still at the church in Cathedral City and also if he does or does not have a regular salary. We realize that the incomes of the priests are anything but high but we do feel that they should pay their bills the same as anyone else. We will be happy to try to work out a payment plan that he can live with if he will get in touch with us immediately. Otherwise we have no alternative but to take legal action against him.

Thank you so much for any assistance you are able to render.

M. De Vos, Collector

Dear Msgr. Booth:

Two years ago Rev. John Keith, now stationed at St. Louis Church, Cathedral City, made a purchase from us totaling $50.61.

We made regular requests for payment. December 6 of last year we had our first response from him when he wrote to say he would pay all or as much as he could by the end of the month. We received nothing and heard nothing else from him until June 6 when he paid $10.00 and promised to send $10.00 a month until the account was paid. That is all he did.

We wrote July 25 to let him know we would request the help of the diocese if he didn't pay by August 15. He called last Monday August 8 to say he was mailing a check. It hasn't reached us yet. Fr. Keith still owes $40.61.

If you could be of assistance in our collecting the account we would greatly appreciate it.

Thank you.

Dear Father Goodrow,

This office has been trying for some time to register Father John Keith of St. Louis' Parish, Cathedral City, a member of your Deanery in the Blue Cross Insurance.

Over a period of two years we have sent Father Keith three request to fill out the enrollment forms. Failing in this we tried to enlist the help of his Pastor, Father Leissler. However this too has seemed to have fallen upon deaf ears.

It is important that all priests' of the Diocese be insured because the expense incurred for hospitalization and doctor's care can be prohibitive.

As the Dean of the Palm Springs Deanery I take my request to you before I bring it to the attention of His Excellency the Bishop. All we need is Father Keith's signature on the enclosed form.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely in Christ,

It's most distasteful to write such a letter and believe me it's the first one in my forty years serving the clergy.

We have an outstanding bill against Rev. John Keith dating back to January--copy of statement enclosed. We have made every effort to collect this bill but to this writing, we have been completely ignored. If Father Keith is ill and he would let us know, we would understand; but no word from him since last July when he promised to take care of it.

May I intrude upon your good graces to help me in collecting this bill. Frankly, our firm is not overly wealthy that we can afford to write this account off our books.

In your letter of December 26, 1963, you requested permission to repay your loan at $30.00 per month. We agreed to this. However, two months have passed and no payment has been received. Due to your failure to make monthly payments, we must have the entire balance due within five days. If payment is not received, the account will be referred to a collection agency for collection and they will use whatever means are necessary to effect collection.

A payment of $297.55 will cover interest and principal due to March 15, 1964. Interest will be more each day thereafter.

It seems regrettable to us, Father Keith, that a man in your position will allow his reputation to be effected by a poor credit rating - and even more regrettable should you neglect this account until legal means must be used for collection. We wonder how a man of God can make promises and statements which are completely lacking in truth - such as your statements about trying to get mail to us and your promises of payment. We trust that you will not force our collection efforts to the point of legal action.

Sincerely,

TURNER AFB FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Dear Rev. Keith:

Thank you for your registered letter of 26 December 1963. We appreciate the fact that you are unable to settle your entire balance in a single payment. However, with all due respect to your vocation, we feel that a conscientious person who really intends to pay $30.00 monthly would have enclosed the first $30.00 payment with the letter to show good faith.

Begin your payments immediately and we will be happy to accept monthly payments of $30.00. But further delay in payment will necessitate legal action against you, as much as we dislike having to take such action.

We trust you will not make such action necessary.

Dear Father Keith:

If you and I could meet in person and shake hands, I'm sure that the first thing that would come to your mind would be the $300.00 you owe the credit union.

And I believe that you would be fair enough to speak about it, perhaps to explain why you haven't paid up as yet.

Then don't you think it only fair to ask you either to pay this loan now, or to sit down and tell us why you haven't taken care of it?

We certainly want to be fair with you. I think we have been. And I'm sure that you want to be equally fair with us. Are we right, Father Keith?

Re: #12052

Dear Father Keith:

At the time you received a loan with this credit union, you signed a legal note requiring payment in full on or before the date of your release from the Air Force. You were unable to do this when you were released from the service, and we agreed to allow monthly payments to settle the balance of $281.50, plus interest, still due. Interest is at the rate of one percent of the unpaid balance per thirty-day period, and the last payment made on the account was on August 6, 1963.

You have disregarded our requests for payments, and therefore, we must ask for payment in full on or before November 15, 1963. Interest to that date will be $9.49, and will increase each day payment is delayed. You have shares in the amount of $4.60 which will be used as payment on the loan. A payment of $286.39, if received on or before November 15, 1963, will settle the account. May we expect your payment by that date?

Yours truly,

Your Excellency:

It is with much misgiving and hesitancy that I write you concerning this situation. It is not my intention to cause any additional hardship upon the person involved but to request that a matter of justice be satisfied.

While Fr. John Keith was in Albany, he obtained the enclosed loan from a local bank through a parishoner, an officer of the bank, and I was asked to co-sign it. When the loan was due, this officer, Mr. George Hughey, picked it up and now I am responsible for its payment.

As of this day, I have not heard from Fr. Keith. Not knowing how to contact him directly, I am taking the liberty of referring this matter to Your Excellency with the hope that you will be able to arrange a settlement of this loan. Since I have to make payment, reimbursement may be made directly to me.

I have the honor to be, Your Excellency,

Dear Father Keith:

This is to put in writing what I communicated to you in our meeting today. Since 1993, several adults have made allegations of sexual abuse against you. As you know, you were sent for evaluation and treatment at Saint Luke Institute in 1993. In light of the evaluation report given by Saint Luke, and in accord with the Essential Norms for Diocesan/Eparchial Policies Dealing with Allegations of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests or Deacons, I direct you as follows:

1. You may not celebrate Mass publicly or administer the sacraments.
2. You may not wear clerical garb, and you may not present yourself publicly as a priest.
3. You may not participate in the annual convocation and assemblies for priests.

I appreciate your cooperation in abiding by these directives and I encourage you to continue to lead a life of prayer and penance as reparation for your past misconduct.

Sex-abuse scandal opens old wounds

Retired cleric denies molestation charges

By David Hasemyer
STAFF WRITER and

Joe Cantlupe
COPLEY NEWS SERVICE

May 9, 2002

Jeremy Norton wept in his San Carlos home yesterday as he recalled the sexual abuse he says a San Diego priest inflicted on him 17 years ago, when he was just a boy.

In a nearby Mission Valley retirement home, the accused priest also cried, denying the accusations and asking for mercy from God.

The lives of Norton and Father John Keith are filled with anguish: Norton for what he says Keith did to him; Keith for things he says never happened, for what he calls lies that will ruin him.

They are among the emerging number of San Diegans embroiled in a nationwide firestorm of allegations over priests' sexual misconduct that has overwhelmed the Roman Catholic Church.

The family said it received $95,000 in a 1999 out-of-court settlement with the Roman Catholic diocese of San Diego stemming from a lawsuit that accused Keith of molestation.

Family members acknowledged there was no admission of wrongdoing on Keith's part. They had previously signed a confidentiality agreement.

For Keith, 76, young Jeremy Norton was just another altar boy at St. Martin's Church in La Mesa, whom he barely remembers. He fears he's a target in a witch hunt for money.

"I'm old. I'm getting ready to die," Keith said. "I'm not a bad person. If I was evil, if I was planning to hurt people it would be different. But I'm not and I didn't do those things."

For Norton, the haunting memory of Father Keith never stops.

"I remember once we were in the car," said Norton, his voice halting and breaking into tears, "and he put his hand against my crotch. It got worse."

Norton, 29, and his family, once devout Catholics, disclosed their allegations in interviews yesterday, saying they hoped that public discussion of an incident close to home would help heal the beleaguered church.

In a statement released yesterday, the Diocese of San Diego acknowledged the lawsuit alleging misconduct by Keith in 1985.

"At the request of the diocese, the plaintiff (Norton's family) agreed to mediation," the statement said. "Out of respect for the privacy of the plaintiff, the diocese does not wish to provide any further details."

According to their lawsuit, Keith once took the 12-year-old boy out of his elementary school class without his mother's knowledge and then bought gifts for him at Toys R Us in La Mesa. Once alone, the lawsuit said, the boy was forced to fondle the priest.

The family said Keith molested the boy several times, although their lawsuit refers to only one instance.

Norton, who family members said is learning-disabled, has been undergoing therapy and was "in the process of recalling the full nature and extent of Keith's conduct," the lawsuit states.

Years ago, Carmen Gresens, Norton's mother, said, she repeatedly complained to church officials about Keith but nothing was done. "They wanted to silence us," Gresens said. Eventually, the family filed the suit.

During the interview yesterday, Gresens clutched her husband Roger's hand as they listened to Norton discuss the allegations. She said the ordeal strained their marriage.

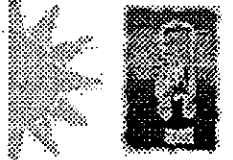

Occasionally, Gresens held her face in her hands and blamed herself for the incidents, which she said devastated her "fragile" son. "I should have done more," she said. "I always told my son to trust in a priest."

Keith, who said he is a recovering alcoholic, said he thought he put the lawsuit long behind him, barely thinking about it.

"I swear to God none of this happened," Keith said. "But I have an idea he was convinced it happened, by his mother."

He said he believes the motive behind the lawsuit was to get money to help Norton with the disability he was born with, suggesting Norton's mother put her son up to making the allegations. Gresens denied that claim.

The priest has been on retired status since 1990 and is not active in the ministry, according to the diocese.

Now frail and nearly blind, Keith said all he wanted to do was live out his days in the tranquillity of retirement, finding solace in his faith and in contentment that he dedicated himself to serving others.

When read the graphic allegations of molestation in the lawsuit, Keith gasped and said, "Dear Lord, no."

In 1999 a lawsuit was filed against the Diocese of San Diego involving Father John Keith. Father Keith has had retired status since 1990 and is not active in ministry. The lawsuit alleged misconduct by Father Keith in 1985. At the request of the diocese, the plaintiff agreed to mediation. Out of respect for the privacy of the plaintiff, the diocese does not wish to provide any further details.

CONFIDENTIAL

September 29, 1995

Dear Father Keith:

As part of my continuing review of your ministerial status, I must inform you that from this date forward you are to restrict your ministry to professed members of the Daughters of St. Paul only, and avoid any occasion upon which you might be expected to minister to any other members of the faithful. Thus, you may celebrate Mass for, and hear the confessions of, the Daughters, but you should not hold yourself available for any other ministry, whether at the Daughters' request or otherwise. Examples which come to mind are special Masses which the Daughters might have to which outsiders would be invited. My staff has notified the Daughters of my direction in this regard.

I thank you for your continuing cooperation and assure you of a place in my prayers.

Fraternally in our Lord,

Dear Father Keith:

As part of my continuing review of your ministerial status, I must inform you that from this date forward you are to restrict your ministry to professed members of the Daughters of St. Paul only, and avoid any occasion upon which you might be expected to minister to any other members of the faithful. Thus, you may celebrate Mass for, and hear the confessions of, the Daughters, but you should not hold yourself available for any other ministry, whether at the Daughters' request or otherwise. Examples which come to mind are special Masses which the Daughters might have to which outsiders would be invited. My staff has notified the Daughters of my direction in this regard.

I thank you for your continuing cooperation and assure you of a place in my prayers.

Fraternally in our Lord,

Bishop of San Diego

Dear Bishop Brown,

Dr. Peter Mc Dade has suggested I write concerning an interest I have and which he heartily concurs.

Some months ago when I was visiting an inmate in the Federal Metropolitan Correctional Center Deacon Nicholas Santiago - the Catholic Chaplain - mentioned the need for a priest to visit there periodically for Mass and confession - a need that still exists. Having discussed this with Dr. Mc Dade and knowing my sincere desire to make amends for past mistakes I was encouraged to write you to offer my help - perhaps on a weekly basis. With your permission I offer myself for this apostolate.

Please excuse the stationery; Fr. Steve said you would understand it is because of my eyesight.

In X^{to},

Dear Fr. Keith:

Just a short note to say that I hope all is going well for you, and to let you know that Dr. Peter McDade informed the bishop that he could take you as a client. Please call him, therefore, at 454-8528, and don't worry if you get an answering machine. Just leave your name and number and he will get back to you. He'll know what it is about.

Fr. Steve Callahan gets back in a couple of weeks. I'll be turning your file over to him, and he will be your diocesan contact person after that. In the meantime, if you have any questions at all, call me.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Fr. Keith:

Based on St. Luke's recommendation, the bishop would like to know whether you would be willing to work with Dr. Peter McDade here in San Diego as your counsellor. If you are interested, please write back to me giving us permission to send your entire personnel file, including psychological reports, to Dr. McDade, to help him determine whether he or one of his associates would be best for you.

Dear Fr. Keith:

I was gratified to learn of your cooperation with the evaluation process at St. Luke's. In light of this report I am authorizing somewhat expanded ministerial duties for you, subject to your continued cooperation and progress in the program recommended by St. Luke's, as follows:

Please arrange with Rev. Steven Callahan to apprise him monthly of your work and activities. While Fr. Callahan is in studies, you can communicate with Dr. Edward Peters (574-6380), whom you already know.

Please arrange on your own to have your diabetes, back, and heart conditions examined more carefully. Please also take seriously the advice of St. Luke's to reduce your weight and to be regular in your AA activities.

My office will, in the meantime, make inquiries about a psychotherapist with whom you can work in accord with St. Luke's recommendations. Dr. Peters will be in touch with you shortly. It will be your responsibility to make arrangements for weekly sessions with a spiritual director, but I would be happy to assist you in that search if you wish.

I am pleased to be able to inform you that:

You now have permission for priestly ministry to any religious in the diocese.

You now have permission for priestly ministry in the retirement center in which you reside, or within any other senior citizen and retirement environments.

At the present time, however, the restriction against parish ministry (including supply work) remains in place, as does the restriction against any contact with persons under the age of 18 (lowered from 21). You will continue to refrain from contact with Mr. Bryan.

This is to advise you that in accordance with your wishes in his regard, we have placed Father John on a two month assignment in a parish in Albuquerque. On 15 July he took up residence at St. Bernadette's, 1800 Martha N.E., Albuquerque, N.Mex. 87112; telephone 505-298-6262.

Subsequent to this supply assignment we will hopefully be able to give him a further and more lengthy assignment which will be to his liking and in which he will be able to use his talents in the ministry.

The Reverend John C. Keith
Holy Rosary Rectory
2525 Arrowhead Avenue
San Bernardino, California

Dear Father Keith:

You are hereby requested to take up residence as of this date at Holy Rosary Rectory, San Bernardino, where Father John Eland extends you a cordial welcome.

Please give Father Eland loyalty and cooperation. You are expected to assist him at his direction in the church and whatever duties he may assign for the rectory, such as convert classes or door duty.

You are absolutely forbidden to call at homes in the Parish or any other Parish in San Bernardino unless requested to do so by Father Eland.

My earnest prayer is that you will so conduct yourself with prudence and good judgment as to cause no worry to this Christ-like priest who has opened for you the hospitality of his home.

You are required to be in at night by 10 o'clock and to follow such other directives that Father Eland may find necessary to give.

It is gratifying to add that to date your teaching assignment at Aquinas appears to be satisfactory.

Let me beg you to invoke the Holy Spirit for the enlightenment and the guidance that we all need.

Faithfully your servant in Christ,

The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy,
Bishop of San Diego
