

at 2012 - Photo Highlights

er James Hayer

prayer, and reflection. The priests often took advantage of the scenic solitude to sit quietly at sunrise or sunset gazing upon the majesty of God's creation. Likewise, the boardwalk also served as a valuable place to walk and chat after meals, in between sessions, or at the end of the day. There is nothing like the seascape to remind us of the beauty and majesty of God's grandeur as found in creation. Each afternoon, there was free time to relax in the sun, walk on the beach or visit local religious institutions to further one's retreat from the cares and concerns of parochial life.

The clergy left for home on Thursday morning knowing that what they took home in their hearts would be demonstrated in their celebration of the Holy Mysteries and experienced in their daily ministries with parishioners and neighbors alike!

The tranquil waters calm the spirit.

Father Gregory Hosler chants the Epistle.

Father Jack Custer leads the singing.

Father Edward Higgins proclaims the Good News.

Father Cimbala prays over the priests while Father Bertha and Father Higgins hold the open Book of Holy Gospels.

The priests look over a selection of imported vestments and liturgical items.

Father Scott Boghossian leads Morning Prayers.

Father Michael Kerestes cantors vespers.

Father Gregory Noga chants the Word of God.

anincik, Michael Salnicky, Mensinger.

(l. to r.): Fathers Joseph Bertha, Edward Cimbala, and Michael Mondik.

(l. to r.) Fathers Harry Untereiner, Joseph Bertha, and Leonard Martin, SJ.